

YALE
CENTER FOR BRITISH ART

Beth Miller

DEPUTY DIRECTOR FOR ADVANCEMENT AND EXTERNAL AFFAIRS

Beth Miller joined the Yale Center for British Art in 1992, and as the Center's first development professional has been responsible for creating a highly successful development and outreach program. Currently Deputy Director for Advancement and External Affairs, she manages the Center's fundraising efforts, as well as the Membership, Communications and Marketing, Special Events, Visitor Services, and Design departments. Prior to her career at Yale, Beth served at the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. She also held positions with architectural and investment banking firms.

Beth received a BA in Art History and Chemistry from Bowdoin College, and a Master's in Public and Private Management from the Yale School of Management. She is an alumna of the Getty Museum Management Institute.