

BIO

Megan Riley is Director of External Affairs at The Bass Museum of Art in Miami Beach, FL, where she has provided strategic leadership, oversight, implementation and management of integrated development and communication initiatives since 2010.

Her diverse and extensive art world career started in the early 90s with the co-founding of Gallery A in Chicago, IL. Making the move to New York a decade later, Megan joined ARTFORUM magazine liaising with advertisers and corporate sponsors. This exposure provided an ideal platform for independent art advising and consulting with nonprofits (Creative-Link for the Arts, Printed Matter, Artist for Aid for Aids), art fairs (Volta, NEXT, Editions/Prints Fair), auction houses (Wright) and galleries.

Megan currently serves on the City of Miami Beach's Art in Public Places committee.
