Experience

Jeff Belair is a partner in the tax service area of EKS&H and has been involved in public accounting for more than 10 years. Jeff helps lead the wealth advisory practice where he provides individuals, including corporate executives, owners and operators of closely held businesses, and their families, with comprehensive solutions that consider the complex aspects of wealth accumulation. He has extensive expertise in individual tax planning, compliance, and philanthropic strategy with a focus on working with clients to build, preserve, and maximize their wealth for themselves and future generations.

Jeff is on the Executive Board of the Denver Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, and he is a board member of the Economic Club of Colorado. He is also a member of the Denver Estate Planning Council, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), and the Colorado Society of Certified Public Accountants (COCPA). In 2014, Jeff completed the Association for Corporate Growth's Leadership 20 program in Denver.
